LITTLE RIDDICK HOUSE
Gates vicinity, Gates County, North Carolina

Owner: Mrs. Hubert Eason

Date of erection: Unknown; may be late seventeenth or early eighteenth century

Present condition: Abandoned

Description:

Frame; one story and loft; gable roof; inside end chimney, now destroyed.

Plan: one room, center door each wall except north; beamed ceiling. Framing shows chimney location and indicates a small room or closet to the west with 4/4 double-hung window (now missing) and space for ladder to loft at east of chimney.

The doors are heavily studded with wrought-iron spikes in diagonal pattern. The chisel marks forming the pattern can still be seen in places. The doors are vertically sheathed on the exterior and horizontally on the interior.
